w have been formed; but the honest for you to require those friends to forts of your friends to secure you the office of Secretary of State before the effice of Secretary of State before the election, ought not now to be visited with your reproaches."

Perhaps you are conscious that the arrangement of which we in Kentucky were so early informed, was bassed on the world be Secretary, if Man President, when there was in the president, when there was in the control of the world be Secretary, if Man President, when there was in the control of the world be Secretary. rivate interest and personal ambition. President, when there was 11 to the interests of the people. Then, indeed, was it corrupt. Then are you right boldly to deny the whole transaction, and cast down the gauntlet to the whole world. A bold face may awe some into silence and convince others of your innocence. It is only by a desperate leap, that a man who stands upon a crumbling precipice, can save himself from destruction. Your conduct in this affair partakes of such desperation. As if conccious of guilt and impending punishment, you better, yountarily better the confidence of the property the interests of the people. Then, in-deed, was it corrupt. Then are you arrant lie for your benefit, and you conduct in this affair partakes of such desperation. As if conscious of guilt and impending punishment, you letter, ly deny that which might have been innocently done, and with desperate resolution, reply the plea of nor guilty, when you might with more safety have confessed, you have played as a game with a full view of your are the evidence does not exist or cannot the evidence which would last to was country and escan from a resolution. be procured which would lead to your conviction. Do not rely upon that. tion. If you are innocent, cal Every week brings forth additional your friends here to show out; if; Every week brings forth additional your friends here to saw our it a facts, and your own conduct induces inultiplied disclosures. The evulvation of yourself and friends, because Buchanan did not directly prove your guilt, was precisely that which the criminal feels, when, from the unexpectation of this incident in continuous feels, when, from the unexpectation of the letters of cted weakness of the testimony he Jackson. Some of the letters acquitted. His exultation is as Representatives elicited by the not in conscious innocence, but in his scape from merited punishment.

In what manner the understanding with Mr. Adams was brough about, or who received the direct assurance rom him, I was never informed. No lid I ask your confidential friend, who onveyed to him this intelligence from Washington City. I was simply in sted, and I wrote because I preferred u to General Jackson, having been old that in any event, we should proably have Mr. Adams in the cabinet state. But it is notorious from the acts already related, that Mr. Adams nust have told somebody, that in case of his election, he would appoint you his Secretary of State; for nobody else could tell what he would do. The somebody conveyed this important piece of information to Frankfort, is alike obvious; for otherwise it would not have got here. That it was true. obvious; because the proved it to be so. The proof is there-fore conclusive, that Mr. Adams did fore conclusive, that Mr. Adams did promise, before the election, to make you Secretary of State, if he should be elected President

Were you and all your friends totally ignorant of this promise? With conveyed it to Frankfort? Was it Buchanan or some other friend of Jack son? No, no; neither Buchanan nor Markley, nor any other friend or pretending friend of Jackson had any thing to do with it. Wes it Mr. Adams or his friends? This is not probable—for they had no friends or cor or they had no friends or con respondents in Kentucky. Was i Mr Clay or his friends? Unquestiona bly it was one or the other. ject was to secure you office and pow-er, and who should be active in this ef fort but yourself and your friends?

Shall-I be candid? I do believe you Shall-t be candid? I do believe you gave this information yourself? I believe so, because the two men set in motion by it, one prominent in the old court party and the new, are well known to have been your own confidential friends and currespondents.

Had you been disposed to commit your secret thoughts and ladden plans to any person in Kentucky, it would have been to one or both of these two. I believe it, because I know of but one other man who was at all likely to have iven this information, and I know he did not. I believe it, because I know you did write to them about that time.

ountry and escape from an invi

mation from Washington relain vour advancement by Adams written before the 20th of less 1825. It is therefore probable 15th of that month. It then take ters from twelve to fifteen dars in vel from Washington to Frank

Those which conveyed this intellige must, therefore, have left the city early as the second or third of Janua Buchanan's interview with Jacks which cut off all hope of your adva was impossible to obtain any pledgefi him, took place on the 50th of D Between that interview and the

of these letters, there could have be inference? Why, when you ford pledge could be obtained from lada pleage could be obtained from Irida you closed with "the ideas held at some of the friends of Mr. Adas assented to the making of the dent on his consenting to make Secretary of State, and immediately despatched letters to Frankfor, in the object of securing the voted of representative, and consummating a arrangement.

THE LIVERWORT. Respecting this plant (Hepatica Tri tal) supposed to be useful in com-limits of the lungs, we have received errial recent communications, of the bettness of one or two of which we

from Joshus Pierce, at Linnahan ill, on Rock Deck, in this District; it learn than this herb grows as we seen than this herb grows as we seen than this herb from the part of the year of the treek, but in the Fall of the year of the treek to be found, owing to its dacalt to be found, owing to it ing easily hidden, like the viole that class of plants, by the falling

From W. P. of Frederick county have received for examination, tw de They are genuine specimer have received some samples ats, which do not even resemble the erwort. We therefore mention phi ancteristic of its appearance, which ancieristic Take a vigorous sprig of amon clover, and place the leavethat their edges come in close con mblance to the shape, at least, of the rewort, or three-lobed liver-plant is smoother on the surface than the of firmer texture, and besides asingle leaf of the plant, you think are a sprig of clover with its three res close together. From Dr. Hereford, of Havinarker ginia, we hear that, in consequence nia, we need to communication on the subject of Medical virtues of this plant. h had many applications to him for Doctor are such, that with appli-tions for his advice, &c. a reasona

ETTRAORDINARY CURBE. Dathe 21st ult. a negro lad, t ent of Mr. Dunstan Banks, nes place, as he was returning fro boutdark, was bitten by a Ra and so severely that in a few moto the house est messenger was despatched to nor Doctor James Guild, who, in it as hour afterwards reached Mo nks'. At the time of his arrival, the was suffering the most excruciar agent, when he had a common rizek bottle about half fille warm, and after scarifying th pouring cold water on the bot the contents were perfectly -In about half an hour, and be the bottle was removed from the and fell into a sound sleep. Nex he was able to walk about, and the dowing was at work as usual. application, as it is in the powe attefficacy is a great considerati Any spirituous liquors would hav ame effect; and even if that coul terwoold answer a very good pur -Tuscalousa Chronicle.

The Russian corvette, commander Baron Wrangel, had arrived i gland, from a voyage round the by Parkinson and Frodsham ring the voyage of two years, los oses 1, 3-10 second; another of chonometers gained 11 second dy, and has never to this momen d more than 3, 8-10 seconds, B Wrangel adds, that his vessel as she is small, and consequent hip lost but three men and or er, killed by the savages, at the quesas Isles. The Baron is the officer who, accompanied by Dr ber, explored the N. E. coast of A from the river Krima, to Behring hit. D. Kyber, who accompanies Beron in this last expedition. as edrought, ninety barrels of she

Frankfort. raralist, has brought with him man upon another subject, in relates which, your friends are seeking pr behas even brought many living us hitherto unknown. tences to reproach me.
ANOS KENDALL from the Cambridge Chronicle. Dr. Mode has made this season, o t acres of land, notwithstanding Discoveries in Herculaneva.

Several discoveries of consideral interest have been made within a few past months in the ruins of Hera laneura. Among them is the house a harber, including his shop, &c. I utensils employed by him in his act pation were in excellent preservation will as the beach on which his contents used to seat the macket while tomers used to seat themselves whit waiting to take their turns and the stive, and several pins used by a retrought, ninety barrels of shell retrought, ninety barrels of shell retrough gashels per acre, wanting a salfaction of a bushels and faction of a bushels retrough gashels retrough gashels retrough gashels retrough gashels per acre. I rem the circumstance of a bet on most fitted ground, and the possibility abe says) of a sceptical reader, for a whole, he has authenticated the steams, by affadavit, before Justice e whole, he has authenticated the state, by affidavit, before Justic outsa, that he surveyed, bounded a measured the lands correctly.

I measured the lands correctly.

I have been a same morice, the lands which were thus sarvey the lands which were thus sarvey the lands and measured, yielded the death above stated; he (Wheeler) ring carefully attended in personing previously notified by Dr. Muse the necessity of being particular, a introded to have him aworn on the steet. NAVY DEPARTMENT. you did write to thein about that time. I believe it, because it is precisely like those acts of adroit management for which the last two and a half years of your life, have been distinguished.

I may be mistaken in supposing that it was your own hand which penned and committed to the mail, the despatch which gave notice of your prospects dependent on the election of Mr. Adams. If ro, you cannot correct the recroit of the analysis of the condered for the camination of Mr. A Board for the examination of Mr. A Board for the Mr. A Board 24th October, 182. A Board for the examination of Me

Baryland Wagette

ANNAPOLIS: THURSDAY, NOV. 1, 1827.

Married in this city, on Thursday ast, by the Rev. Mr. Davis, Dr. BARBER of A. A. county, to -, By the same on the same av. Mr. John BARBER of Georaf the ily, to Miss ANN R. Holyins of A. A.

> RAPARARAN COMMUNICATED.

OBITUARY.

Seldon has the name of any indi vidual been committed to the Obituar record, whose departure has been more ensibly felt, or more generally regreted, than that of him, whom it is not our melancholy duty to number amor copal Church in the Diocess of Mary land, departed this life, on Sunday the cet for the inheritance of the Sai en committed to the ground, hear over committee to the ground, "early on early, askes to askes, dust to dust," yet may we lumb'y, but confidently upe, that his oprit lives in joy an telicity, and that having finished his ourse in faith, he now resus from his abours in the bosom of his God.

From the Balt. Amer. of Oct. 29. DISTRESSING AND FATAL AC-CIDENT.

It is with feelings of deep concern hat we heard, on Saturday morning, the particulars of a distressing acci-dent by which the Right Rev. Bishop Kemp received very severe bodil nt, in Philadelphia, at the Consecration of the Rev. Mr. Onderdonk a Assistant Bishop of the diocese of Pennsylvania, left that city on Prida ast in the steam boat on his retur bout three miles from the latter place nade by the drunken driver to pas stance which circumstances and the ice and treatment contributed much shom was the Bishop, were taken the nearest tavern, and thence trans orted on heds to the steamboat a

DEATH OF THE RIGHT REV. BISHOP KEMP,

With unfeigned sorrow we find on consequence of the internal injurie-eceived by this distressing accident From the period of its occurrence, he or the greatest degree of bodily po and suffering. The application of the nd most unwearied attentions of h family and friends, afforded a partial out, alas! unavailing relief;—and a one o'clock P. M. yesterday, he ter n nated his earthly existence, after ng life devoted to the service of hi and eminently beneficial to the hurch of which he was so distinguishd a minister.

DISTRESSING. On Monday morning Mr. CLEMEN WHITTINGTON, a respectable young lates Navy, while engaged in super ntending the operations of a Wind Mill in South River Neck, became en ingled in the cog wheel, which caugh ne skirt of his coat, and was instantly

Died on the 17th of October at Rich ands, the seat of Mr James Cunning Helict of the late Doct. John Shaw, o his city.

- On Sunday morning last, this city, after a distressing illness of several years, Mr. BENNETT HURST Mr. Hurst was a useful and respects e citizen.

Thursday, Oct. 25. John Green, quire, of the city of Washington, was dmifted an attorney of the court.

Friday, Oct. 26. The Count affirmed the Judgment in The Palapaca Innurance Company vs. Graf. Also in The same vs. Hodges. Also in Cor-dery's adm'rs. vs. Is eatherly's adm'x. Also in Dooley vs. De Wolf. Saturday, Oct. 27, Anguera, J. deli-

Saturday, Oct. 27. Anorum, J. delivered the opinion of the Court in Wall's exx vs Wall. Judgingt Reversed.

He also delivered the opinion of the roart in Lowry, et ux. vs. Treman & Williamson—Decree Affirmed.

He also delivered the opinion of the court in Hammond's exys. vs. Of Hammond's exys. vs. Of Hammond's exys. Judgment Reversed. BUOHANAN, Ch. J. delivered the of inion of the court in Drury vs. Oon ter—Decree Reversed in part.

The court then adjourned until the lay of the court in course.

Prospects of Mr. Adams in Penn sylvania.

The following table exhibits the sen iments of the members of the Hous wealth on the Presidential question-Jackson

City of Philadelphia ounty of Philadelphia 7 Montgomery Delaware Berks & Schuylkille 4 Lancaster Lehigh \dams

Cumberland Dauphin and Wayne Lebanon* Northumberland

Hantingdon Mifflin ontre & Clearfield Allegheny & Butler Bedford Westmareland

Washington Lycoming, Tioaga, & M.Kean Columbia Armstrong, Indiana and Jeff rson Luzeine and Susquehanna Bradford Somerset and Cam-Greene Crawford and Venango 1 Erie and Warren 0

*Two vacancies.

ANOTHER BONK ROBBER. Five hundred dollars Reward. Nathaniel Snelson, the teller of the fice of Discount and Deposit of the Bank of Virginia, in Petersburg, has tolen from the said office about For y Thousand Pollars, chi fly in notes f one hundred dollars each, the presents of the President, Directors at ompany of the Bank of Virginiaand he absconded early on norning, having, as is believed, a ver-large portion of that sum with him. I s understood that he got into one o e steamboats below City P. int or

he same morning
I am authorised by the Board of the ectors of the said office, to offer the bove reward and all resonable expen es, for his apprehension and safe de ivery to the Jailor of this town.

Snelson is about fifty years of ago with clear blue eyes. - He hesitates, and generally appears embarrassed when speaking.,
G. W. Stainback, Cashier.

LIEUT. WASHINGTON. The death of this person at Napoli ys since noticed in our columns. lays since noticed in our columns. A etter from an American officer who ad just returned from Napoli to Smyrna, to the editor of the Middle own Sentinel, gives the following ac-ount of the death of this strangely co entric young man.

..Mr. Washington, who arrived a Napoli from France, since we left there, was mortally wounded by a shot from Pallimedos, (the castle) while defendand the battery, the command of which ad been assigned him by Trippenally Ye was then taken on board the Asia and died soon after. The shot which truck him took off his right hand and strick him took off his right hand and strick away part of his hip bone. He as asked by the officers of the asia, short time before his death, if he had iny message or legacy he wished to eave; he replied in a few moments, he distance, one ditto Charity, and one ditto by the name of George, one Woman named Grace, one ditto Charity, and one ind one- his curses upon his country! ditto Sarah, and on Thursday the 22d day of Nov. inst. at the residence of the said Jno. Beard, I shall proceed cloved and honoured, who could have to sell the said property to the high ver believed it would ever have been est, bidder, for cash, to satisfy the isgraced by a death-bed curse upon debt due as aforesaid. Sale to com has country which gave it birth, and monce at 11 o'clock. Attendance by trangers, and on board an English R Welch of Ben. late Shift. A A C. Nov. 1.

CHEAP BOOT, SHOE

HATESTO B. B. GOODWIN Baltimore, Philadelphia and New-England Work.

CONSISTING OF Gentlemens short ing, Prunello, Sali-Buots, Bootees net, Morocco, & Scal and Shoes Skin Shors. and Shoes
Ladies Silk Last-

All of the latest fashions, and a gene ral assurement of Boots and Shoesof which he will sell very cheap.

HE HAS ALSO A fresh supply of fashionable HATS, which is to quality can be recommen by

A Law Library FOR SALE, FOR CASH.

The subscriber will sell his LAW LIBRARY, and will attend at his Jeremiah Townley Chase. Nov 1.

HOUSE, LAND & NEGROES. For Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the high court of chancery, the sub-cribers will the 29th day of November, at the court HOUSE and LOT in said city, lying in the East side of North East side. ow occupied by Miss Franklin; also a LOT containing about one acre, lying on the North West side of North East Street, and outposte the above mentioned hosse, being a part of the real estate of the late Benjamin Harrood, deceased.

The subscribers will also expose to mblic sale, on Fillery the Soth day of November, inst. if fair, if not the next fair day thereafter, on the premises, the real estate of the late Benjamin Har wood, deceased, now occupied by Mrs. E'iz beth Harwood, widow of the late William Harwood, lying and being in Anne Arundel county, being a part of Hickory Hills and Velmead, contain ing in the whole 300 acres of land more or less. Also another Tact, or part of a tract, called Waterhold, conaining 200 acres of land, more or less This estate is so well known that it is deemed unnecessary to give a further description of the same, as it is presamed those inclined to purchase will view the same previous to the day of sale. Terms of sale—one half of the purchase money to be paid within twelve months from the day of sale. with interest from the day of sale; and years from the day of sale; with interby bond, with approved security. And on the ratification of the sale, and pay subscribers are authorized to execute

Also, at the same place and on the GR ES, consisting of Mon, Womer and bildren, being a part of the per sonal estate of the late Benjamin Har-wood, deceased. Terms of sale—a est from the day of sale, and all some under twenty dollars, cash.

Rd. Harwood of Thos
H. H. Harwood,

facias, issued out of Anne Arunda county court, and court of appeals, and sundry executions issued by John Claytor, a justice of the perce for A. A. county, and to me directed against the goods and chattels, lands and te nements, of John Beard, at suit o Richard Estep, for the use of M Don sid and Ridgely, Ann Munroe, Issac Jones, Ann Stockett, and Ann Stock ett adm's. Jno. S. Stockett, Ann Maris Miller, adm'r. John Miller, and fo taken in execution, all that tract of the loyd, he ratified and confirmation that the land whereon the said John Beard ed, unless cause be shewn to the contrary before the 25th day of the contrary before the 25th day of the lying and being in Anne-Arundel county, on the Queen Anne road, a out two miles from South River bridge; three head Horses, two yoke

Selling off. P. S. LITTIG,

Intending to leave this City on or about the 5th November inst. will sell all by any part of his Stock of Goods and Furniture,

CONSISTING OF Dry Goods, Groceries, Glass, Queen & Stone Ware, Shoes, &c. Side-board, Bureaus, Tables, Chairs, Looking Glasses, Bed-steads, Carpets, &c.

Whatever is not sold by the above date. will be offered at AUCTION.

He takes this opportunity of tendering his thanks to his friends and customers.

nd the public generally.

N. B. Three STOVES, and four of Reid's celebrated AXES, very cheap Also, Champagne, Brandy, Old Rye Whiskey, Peach Brandy, and L. P. Wine, which he can recommend for age and flavour, and will sell them much cheaper than my in this state of

The Grand Literature Lottery of MARYLAND, be drawn in Biltimore on 19t

December J I. COHEN, Jr & BROTHERS

Managers
The number of Tickets being coniderably less than any lottery for ome time past, renders the scheme very brilliant and gives to the adven turer an excellent chance of success for the capital prizes, Capital Prizes.

$10,000-$5,000, &c.

SOMETH, 1 prize of $10,000 is 1 prize of 5,000 is l prize I prize of 3 000 is 3.000 I prize of I prize of 1,000 is 3 prizes of 100 js ___1.000_ 10 prizes of 20 prizes of 50 prizes of 100 prizes of 3000 prizes of

3188 prizes, amounting to $38,000

Present Price of Tickets.

Tickets 85 00 | Quarters 81 25 Halves 2 50 | Eighths 62 Numbers in the greatest variety to be Swann's Office. Annapolis. Where was sold in the last two faryland lotteries, more capital priz than any office in the state, save

those of the managers

Orders from any part of the U nited States, either by mail (post paid) or private conveyance, enclosing the cash or prize tickets in any of the lotpunctual attention as if on personal

THOMAS SWANN;

Sheriff's Sale. By virtue of a writ of fieri faciania sued out of the court of appeals and to me directed, against the goods and sonal estate of the rate programs of sale—a counties for Benjamin Gaisser, as some of Nicholas Brewer jun. I have seen of land with the improvements tract of land with the improvements thereon, called "Providence," lying and being in Anne Arundel county. nundred and three acres of land more r less, also all the crops of Corn and Pobacco now on the premises, and on Late Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of sundry writs of fieri next at the premises I shall proceed to sell the said property to the high est bidder, for cash, to satisfy the debt due as aforesaid. Sale to com mence at 11 o'clock. R Welch of Ben. Shiff A. A C. Nov. 1.

In Chancery.

Ordered. That the sale made and exported by Thomas Snowden, junr. rustee for the sale of the mortgaged property of Nicholas Dorsey, of Lloyd, he ratified and confirmthree successive weeks, in one of the paid on the day of sale or the ratifiorder be inserted once in each of Annapolis newspapers, before the 25th day of November next.

True copy,
Test Ramsay Waters, Reg. Cur Can. Nov. 1.

Sale Postponed. The Sale of the Negroes, advertised satisfy a debt due the late Thomas by William Brogden, Adm'r. of Maj. Tongue, the creditors of the said Brogden, to take place at the late resi. Tongue are requested to attend the dence of the deceased is postponed un-til Thursday the 15th November, inst. Nov. 1

Co-partnership Dissolved.

The co-partnership heretofore existing between the subscribers, unifer the firm of EVANS & IGLEHART, was dissolved on the lat instant by was dissolved on the lat instant by mutual consent. All persons having claims against said concern, are requested to present them to either of the subscribers, for settlement and all those indebted to the kine in any manner, are requested to come forward immediately, and settle the same.

JOSEPH EVANS.

JAMES IGLEHABT.

Out 22d, 1827.

Dut 22d, 1827.

NEW STORE.

The subscriber having purchased out the entire Stock of Goods belonging to Evans & Iglehart, on favourable terms, and having added to them a very superior assurtment of

New and Seasonable

Purchased principally with CANH, from the latest arrivals, now offers them for sale at the lowest cash prices. He solicits a share of public patron-age, as he is determined, by constant nd unremitted attention, to give sarisfaction to those who for favour him with their custom, their duly grateful for past favours.) He has commenced his business in the same store formerly occupied by Evans & Iglehart, imme-liately opposite and convenient to the Markey House and Dock.

Nov 1,1827.

In Chancery.

Ordered, That the sale made and reported by Thomas Snowden, juntrustee for the sale of the mortgaged property of Nicholas Dursey, of Lloyd, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause be sheap to the contrary hefore the 25th day of December next, provided a copy of this order be inserted once in each of three successive weeks, before the 25th day of sive weeks before the 25th day of sive weeks, before the 25th day of November next, in one of the Annapolis neways are.

The report litates that certain personal property old for 3437 00.

True copy.

Test Rainsay Waters,
Reg. Cur. Can.

Nov. 1.

In Chancery, September Term, 1827. Henry C. Drury

Frederick Mills, & Others.

The bill in this case states, that a certain Achiah Mills sold and agreed in writing to convey, to the complainant, her portion of a track of land in ant, her portion of a trace of land in Anne Arundel county called "Holloway's Neck," said agreement is dated the 25th of June 1810, and is exhibited with the bill. The bill states, that the purchase money was paid, but no deed ever executed; that Achsah Mills is dead, and that Frederick Mills "Varlotte Lauham and Mills, Charlotte Lanham, and -Lanham her hushand, and Elizabeth, the wife of the companiant, are the heirs of the eard Aclasa's and that the said Charlotte Lanham, and her husband, and the said Prederick Mills, band, and the said Frederick Mills, live out of the state. The object of the bill is to precure a conveyance from the said heirs to the complainant of the said Achael's portion of said lands and interest therein and all their interest therein derived though her. The bill states, that the nursh her money was fully raid for purchase money was fully paid for said Achsah's interest in said land. It is thereupon, this ninateenth day of ed, that the complainants, by in-serting a copy of this order in one of the Annapolys newspapers, once in each of three successive weeks before the nineteenth day of November next, of the substance and object of this pear in this court in person or by su licitor, on or before the first day of March next, to answer the premises, ecree should not pass as prayed.

True Copy—Test

Ramsay Waters, Reg. Cur. Can. Oct 23

Trustee's Sale.

By virtue of two decrees of the High Court of Chancery of Maryland, the subscriber as Trustee, will offer at public sale on Saturday, 10th day of November next, on the prendses, all that parcel of Land, lying in Anne-Arundel counts, on which William Weems, esq now resides, being part of Portland Manor, and containing three hundred acres more or less

The terms of sale are cash, to be 25th day of November next.
The report states the amount of sales to be $1000. tee, is authorised to convey the land to the purchaser, his heirs and sssigns for ever, free, clear and discourged from all claim of the com-plainants and the defendants, and their and each of their heirs, &c.

This property being to be sold to satisfy a debt due the late Thomas Somerville Pinkney, Trustee, Oct. 18.